Thursday, February 28, 2008

A cool downtown space will turn into a silver-leafed art salon on March 8. The salon will show works by ONB Magic City Art Connection exhibiting artists, but at Art Bash prices.

Art Bash benefits educational programming at the 25th anniversary ONB Magic City Art Connection. It is presented by Magic City Art Connection with Intermark Group.

Guests are encouraged to wear silver outfits or accessories to celebrate the silver anniversary.

Young, fresh Birmingham artists will show cool installations. Guest DJ Hellfyre of Atlanta will be spinning music he describes as "house, trance and breaks."

Leisa Cole and Tony Rodio of Omni will create fun photography portraits of guests.

Guests will enjoy wine, champagne, beer, water and soft drinks, along with hearty snacks from Franklin Biggs of Franklin's Homewood Gourmet, Carol Griffin of Chez Lulu and Continental Bakery, and Joannetta Jarman of Catering by LaNetta and others.

Art Bash will take place in the corner building at 12th Street and First Avenue North, with the entrance on 12th Street. Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. Call 595-6306. There is secure parking at Gallet & Associates across the street.

ONB Magic City Art Connection will be April 25-27 at Linn Park. Scribblers runs on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. You may call Susan Strickland at 325-2452 or e-mail her at scribblers@bhamnews.com.
