

using our past to build our future

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

Comprehensive Plan Public Workshops

Interested in the future of transportation?
economic development?
sustainability?
community
quality of life?
in the City of Birmingham?

Come to one or more of the “communities of interest” public workshops to discuss best practices and potential strategies for the City of Birmingham Comprehensive Plan!

TOPIC OF INTEREST

Transportation

Tuesday, January 10, 2012

5:30 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB)
Hill University Center Board Room / HUC 325
1400 University Blvd.
Birmingham, AL 35294

TOPIC OF INTEREST

Green Systems and Sustainability

Thursday, January 12, 2012

5:30 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

Vulcan Park & Museum
1701 Valley View Drive
Birmingham, AL 35209

TOPIC OF INTEREST

Community Renewal and Downtown Revitalization

Monday, January 23, 2012

5:30 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

Boutwell Municipal Auditorium
1930 Rev. Abraham Woods, Jr. Blvd.
Birmingham, AL 35203

TOPIC OF INTEREST

Economic Development— Prosperity & Opportunity

Tuesday, January 24, 2012

5:30 p.m.–7:30 p.m.

Birmingham Public Library
Linn-Henley Building
Richard Arrington, Jr. Auditorium, 4th Floor
2100 Park Place
Birmingham, AL 35203

Refreshments will be served.

OUR CITY | OUR VOICE | OUR PLAN

For more information, call the City’s planning office at 205-254-2479 or sign up on the plan website: www.birminghamcomprehensiveplan.com

UNITED

FOR THE GOOD OF THE CITY

MAYOR WILLIAM A. BELL, SR.